PARTIES AND BACKGROUND

This Synthetic Company Service Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made between Northstar Digital Solutions Private Limited, a fictional company incorporated in India with its fictional office at 14 Innovation Park, Bengaluru, Karnataka 560001 (the “Company”), and BluePeak Analytics Private Limited, a fictional service provider with its fictional office at 22 Business Avenue, Kochi, Kerala 682030 (the “Service Provider”). The parties wish to establish terms under which the Service Provider will provide software development, data processing, and technical support services to the Company.

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

“Confidential Information” means non-public business, financial, technical, operational, customer, security, source-code, product, and commercial information disclosed by or on behalf of a party. “Services” means the software development, data processing, maintenance, and support services described in an agreed statement of work. Headings are included for convenience and do not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

2. EFFECTIVE DATE AND TERM

This Agreement becomes effective on 1 October 2026 (the “Effective Date”) and, unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Agreement, will remain in force until 30 September 2027 (the “Expiration Date”). The parties may extend the term by signing a written renewal document before the Expiration Date.

3. SERVICES AND DELIVERABLES

The Service Provider shall design, develop, test, and maintain the software modules listed in each statement of work. Deliverables may include source code, technical documentation, test reports, deployment instructions, and user manuals. The Company shall review each deliverable within ten business days and shall provide written notice describing any material non-conformity.

4. FEES AND PAYMENT TERMS

The Company shall pay the Service Provider a fixed service fee of INR 4,50,000 per project milestone, subject to acceptance of the applicable deliverable. The Service Provider shall submit a valid invoice after milestone acceptance. The Company shall pay undisputed invoices within thirty days of receipt. Any disputed amount shall be notified in writing with reasonable details, and the parties shall work in good faith to resolve the dispute.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each receiving party shall protect the other party's Confidential Information using at least the same degree of care it uses to protect its own similar information, and in no event less than reasonable care. The receiving party shall use Confidential Information only to perform or receive the Services and shall not disclose it to any third party except to employees and professional advisers who need to know the information and are bound by confidentiality obligations. These duties do not apply to information that is publicly available without breach, already lawfully known, independently developed, or lawfully received from another source. Upon written request or termination, the receiving party shall return or securely destroy the Confidential Information, subject to lawful archival requirements.

6. DATA PROTECTION AND SECURITY

The Service Provider shall implement reasonable administrative, technical, and organisational safeguards to protect personal data processed for the Company. It shall restrict access to authorised personnel, maintain appropriate access controls, and notify the Company without undue delay after becoming aware of a confirmed security incident affecting Company data. The parties shall document any additional data-processing obligations in a separate written schedule.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Each party retains ownership of intellectual property it owned or developed independently before this Agreement. Subject to full payment of the applicable fees, project-specific deliverables created exclusively for the Company under a statement of work shall be assigned to the Company, excluding the Service Provider's pre-existing tools, libraries, templates, and general know-how. The Service Provider grants the Company a perpetual, non-exclusive licence to use any of its pre-existing materials embedded in the deliverables to the extent necessary to use those deliverables.

8. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Each party represents that it has the authority to enter into this Agreement. The Service Provider warrants that it will perform the Services with reasonable skill and care and in accordance with the agreed specifications. Except as expressly stated in this Agreement, all other warranties are excluded to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

9. INDEMNIFICATION

The Service Provider shall defend and indemnify the Company against third-party claims alleging that the deliverables, as supplied by the Service Provider and used in accordance with this Agreement, infringe a third party's intellectual property rights. The Company shall promptly notify the Service Provider of the claim and provide reasonable cooperation. The indemnifying party shall not settle a claim in a manner that admits liability on behalf of the other party or imposes non-monetary obligations without the other party's prior written consent.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Except for liability arising from fraud, wilful misconduct, breach of confidentiality, infringement of intellectual property rights, or payment obligations, neither party shall be liable for indirect, incidental, special, punitive, or consequential loss, including loss of profits or anticipated savings. Subject to those exclusions, each party's aggregate liability under this Agreement shall not exceed the total fees paid or payable under the relevant statement of work during the twelve months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

11. ASSIGNMENT

Neither party may assign or transfer this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the other party, except that either party may assign this Agreement to an affiliate or to a successor in connection with a merger, corporate reorganisation, or sale of substantially all of its relevant business, provided that the successor agrees in writing to be bound by this Agreement.

12. TERMINATION

Either party may terminate this Agreement for convenience by giving the other party sixty days' prior written notice. Either party may terminate immediately by written notice if the other party commits a material breach and fails to remedy that breach within thirty days after receiving written notice describing the breach. On termination, the Company shall pay for Services properly performed and accepted up to the effective termination date. Provisions which by their nature should survive termination shall continue to apply.

13. NOTICE

Any notice under this Agreement must be in writing and delivered by recognised courier or email to the authorised representatives designated by each party. Notices are deemed received on delivery confirmation for courier notices or, for email, when the sender receives no delivery failure notification and the email is sent before 5:00 p.m. on a business day.

14. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles. The courts located in Bengaluru, Karnataka shall have exclusive jurisdiction over disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, subject to any mandatory statutory jurisdiction.

15. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party shall be responsible for delay or failure to perform caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including natural disasters, acts of government, widespread telecommunications failure, or civil disturbance, provided that the affected party promptly notifies the other party and takes reasonable steps to reduce the impact. If the event continues for more than sixty days, either party may terminate the affected statement of work by written notice.
